Enter to worship

Depart to Serve

Dear Heavenly Father, Help me, I pray, to honor You with all that I do this week. By your Holy Spirit's power, may my words and actions cause others to glorify Your Name.

Ten 4 Him will practice at 11:00 Sunday morning.

There will be puppet practice at 6:00 this evening (Sunday). All puppeteers are expected. If you cannot come, please let Judy Taylor know this morning. Bad weather could possibly change things, so listen for announcement or call Judy at 304-988-1638. If you have an Email address, let me know. To contact me by Email: jtliving4jesus@citynet.net We encourage anyone who is in Middle School through adult to consider being a puppeteer or helping behind the scenes in practices, Agapeland performances, and Youth Services. Just contact Judy, show up for 6:00 practice each Sunday evening with gloves. (See Judy for particulars on the gloves). We enjoy getting new members. THE LORD'S HANDS are looking for willing workers in the Lord's vineyard. See you at practice.

Homecoming services celebrating 20 years for Goldtown Community Church will be on Sunday, April 18, and then revival will be held from April 19 - April 24. If you have any pictures or anything else that has to do with the history of Goldtown, please give that information to Kim Miller or Julie McCollam.

The adult Sunday School class luncheon has been cancelled due to the weather.

Big thanks to everyone who helped in anyway with the reception honoring Brother J.T. last week. Your help in making it such a wonderful time of fellowship is appreciated!

Super Bowl Service

Date: TONIGHT

Time: 5:00 pm

Where: GCC Gym

Church will start at 5:00pm followed by the Super Bowl. The game will be projected on the gym wall. The youth department will provide pizza, and we request that everyone attending bring pop, chips, or cookies. You must attend church before coming to watch the game. If you are unable to attend the 5:00 PM service in the gym, you must attend the 7:00 pm service in the sanctuary. The service will end at 9:00 pm or halftime, whichever comes first. More details will be provided in future bulletins.

Many years ago, our church had two separate youth choirs called Sweet notes and love notes. Over the years, the ages for these choirs changed and the two choirs were divided differently forming the King's Kids. The younger choir kept both names due to the new age division; however, it was only one choir. So to eliminate the name confusion we are going to change the name of this youngest choir. We need your suggestions for a new name. Please submit to Judy Taylor your ideas by February 14, 2010.

There will be a meeting for all Adult Choir members and church musicians on Sunday evening, February 7, 2010, at 5:30 p.m. in the Foundations classroom. We will be discussing the job description and nominations/election process that the Board of Directors has approved to be used in selecting a Choir Director. Your attendance will be greatly appreciated. Any choir member or church musician that would like to review the job description, prior to that meeting, should see Pam Gandee to obtain a copy.

Toddler's Creed

Elisa Morgan, president of MOPS International (Mothers Of Pre-Schoolers), shared this insight - The Toddler's Creed -into a child's view of the world:

If I want it, it's mine.
If I give it to you and change my mind later, it's mine.
If I can take it away from you, it's mine.
If I had it a little while ago, it's mine.
If it's mine, it will never belong to anyone else, no matter what.
If we are building something together, all the pieces are mine.
If it looks just like mine, it is mine.

Anyone who has ever known a toddler knows the truth of this creed. We expect to see this trait in toddlers, but we despise it when it's seen in adults. It's called covetousness. The apostle Paul, who had led an outwardly religious life before he became a follower of Jesus, wrestled with that sin (Romans 7:7). After carefully studying the law of Moses, he recognized covetousness for what it is. But God in His grace changed Paul. Instead of remaining a coveting, grasping man, he became a truly generous person (Acts 20:33-35). And generosity may be the acid test of whether or not we are still spiritual toddlers.

Are you allowing the Lord Jesus Christ to create in you a new, giving heart? Or are you still following the Toddler's Creed?

Food Pantry
Donations Needed

A big thank you to the church family for helping to stock the food pantry. During Thanksgiving, the food pantry assisted two families and during the Christmas holiday, we supplied eight families with food. There are currently three people being served by our food pantry on a weekly basis.

The following items are needed to restock the food pantry – boxed cereal, jelly, soup, pancake mix, syrup, dried beans, sugar, and boxed macaroni and cheese. No canned food is needed at this time.

The food pantry will be open on Tuesday evening from 6:30 – 8:30 pm.
